The 2013 Radio City Christmas Spectacular returns this year with a dazzling opening number featuring stunning sets, costumes and breathtaking stage effects. With perennial favorites like the show-stopping "Parade of the Wooden Soldiers" and the majestic "Living Nativity", this is the holiday treat your family won't want to miss! The Radio City Rockettes will continue to dazzle you with precision dance and world-famous eye-high kicks. An exciting 3-D film kicks off the show with Santa and his reindeer taking the audience on a magical sleigh ride through New York City.

This trip includes deluxe motor coach transportation, tickets for the show (mezzanine seating), and a small donation to the Colonial Players theater group. The bus will leave the PWHS back parking lot (near the football field) at 8:00 am and should arrive in NYC around 10:15 am, leaving plenty of time to get into Radio City before the start of the show at 11:30. Following the show, participants will have free time in the city to have a late lunch, shop, sight-see, etc. The bus will depart NYC at approximately 5:30 pm, returning to PW around 8:00 pm. Lunch and free time are on your own.

There are a limited number of seats to this event on a first come, first serve basis. Fees are payable by cash or check (made out to Colonial Players). No seats will be held without payment. Due to ticket reservation regulations, refunds/returns will not be issued. Minors under 18 must be accompanied by a parent or guardian.

To secure your reservation, please complete the registration/release form (attached) and return with payment to:
